

Preview Art Basel 2019

BY The Editors of ARTnews POSTED 06/07/19 12:18 PM

Hélio Oiticica's Penetrável Filtro, 1972, will be presented in the Unlimited section.
COURTESY PROJETO HÉLIO OITICICA AND GALERIE LELONG & CO.

Art Basel 2019 opens to the public on Thursday, June 13, with two preview days, on June 11 and 12. Some 290 galleries from 34 countries will show work at the Swiss fair, which runs through June 16. Among the artists in the exhibition are Kerry James Marshall at David Zwirner (of New York, London, and Hong Kong), Tomás Saraceno at Tanya Bonakdar (New York and Los Angeles), and Farah Al Qasimi at the Third Line (Dubai).

Click the photos below to launch a slideshow of works that will be at the fair.

Alexander Gray Associates, New York | Unlimited

Coco Fusco, Tin Man of the Twenty-First Century, 2018, aluminum and steel.